THE LIBRARY OF VIRGINIA
RICHMOND, VA

1967

We dedicate the 1967 edition of CHAIN AND ANCHORS to a person who has devoted herself to our learning and understanding. She has been not only a teacher, but also a friend. Our thoughts and love will go with MRS. VIRGINIA K. LOVING in the years to come.

DEDICATION

We hope that these "memories of Fairfax" may remind you of the little events that might otherwise be forgotten, as well as the unforgettable ones, such as Ring Figure and May Day.

SENIOR PROPHECY

It is a typical Saturday afternoon in China, fifteen years after the class of '67 has descended the hill and walked away from the Fairfax campus. A noon gong sounds and Ping Choy and his friend, Foy Yong, stroll to their favorite restaurant, "The Smiling Buddha," for their lunch. Following their chow mein, Ping announces, "The bes' chow mein I eva eat. Time for dessert now." With that he snaps his fingers and a short Chinese waiter hurries to the table with a basket of fortune cookies.

Upon opening the first one it is revealed that Christie Carrico has made a name for herself by becoming the first woman to dog-paddle across the English Channel. As Ping opens more cookies, it is disclosed that Sarah Evans is now in business for herself; she just recently opened up the Evans Beauty School where she is busy selling her beauty secret. Ione Gates is a professional beatnik artist in the Village, while on the other side of New York City Anne Hathaway is modeling for Saks Fifth Avenue.

Contrary to previous predictions, Mary Shepard has become the leading Copper-tone model. Nancy Boyer is now married and is living happily with her family and her ducks. Cherrie Duffy has employed her photographic talents to the fullest; she is now working for the CIA. Presley Merritt has opened her own personal dance studio, where she conducts private lessons on how to do the "philly dog." Ellen Clough is famous for her new breed of horses which she raises herself. Allison Wright is now a world-renowned barber, specializing in men's haircuts.

After many years of practice Laura Jones has become one of the nurses on "General Hospital." Ginney Williams designs her own swimming pools for girls' schools and supervises their installation. Joyce Dicker is head cheerleader at Boston University. Andrea Erskine has traveled back to Europe and is a gondola singer in Venice. Laurie Beaton is busy every spring as emcee for the Apple Blossom Festival in Winchester.

Debbie England is well-known for her improvements in the design of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad cars. Bette Norwood has become mayor of New Orleans and recently announced her intention to extend Mardi Gras to an all-year-round event. Betty Mahery has won the Nobel Prize for her outstanding work in the field of chemistry. Cindy Crawford and Mary Jane Toms have become a celebrated comedy team and appear regularly on the Soupy Sales Show, while Sharon Tierney is now a go-go girl in a well-known night spot in New York. Meredith Freund has become the ambassador to Israel and Squeak Larkins has captured the leading role in the revised series of "National Velvet."

Ping Choy was obviously enjoying his afternoon activity and called for more tea and fortune cookies. Susan Mackey has moved to Arabia and is now happily married to eight husbands. Kathy Gould, a powerful orator in the U. S. Senate, is busy denouncing the practices of President Pyle, the first woman to hold the chief executive's office. Mary Etter has become a clothes designer, while the famous singer, Angela Anthony, quickly buys up everything that Mary designs.

Ann Montgomery surprised us all as she has become an instructor at Vic Tanny's Gym, while Carol Sue Robinson is now an expert on the volley-ball court. Linda Marshall is busy as the first woman editor of Playboy magazine. Dottie Thrift has begun the Waynesboro subway service for commuters from town to Fairfax. Liz Matthews has a large following among her old friends as she conducts a morning exercise program on TV. Anne Shipper has named her little two-year-old prodigy "Liberace."

Carolyn Bailey is operating her own restaurant, "The Golden Drumstick," and Gayle Roberts is busy training ten little Olympic swimmers. Laura Hudson's picture appears in all the fashion magazines as she is a famous model for Hanes' nylons. Sue Farren has become a world-renowned speech therapist.

Leslie Faulds has taken over as Fishburne's first social director, while Terry Scott is at the front of the line of strikers protesting the existence of F.M.S. Ann MacKinnon has become Duke's official application decipherer. Angela Miller, putting her maternal instincts to good use, has been voted "Mother of the Year." Barbara Lange, as quiet as ever, is the author of several famous horsemanship books.

After finishing all of the fortune cookies, Ping Choy sighs contentedly, and says, "Very good fortunes. Old Chinese proverb say: 'Que sera, sera; what will be, will be.' I hope everybody happy."

The meeting of the minds. . . . No comment. . . . Do you really think I can exempt? . . . It's very easy, just follow the fox. . . . What fox? . . . Once a month. . . . Avid readers.

Beat (was it Stuart Hall or St. Anne's?) . . . It's my turn to hit it. . . . Wouldn't anybody care to help? . . . The smell of spring. . . . He's my idol . . . The view from here is great. . . . Lawrence of Arabia. . . . Did you hear about——?

Don't worry, Yul Brunner's in this year! . . . Carol Sue speaks again. . . . I hate spring cleaning. . . . It's a great song! . . . Wouldn't you know I'd run out of Dippity-Do? . . . Are you sure she doesn't have an extra ace? . . . Mrs. Stephenson checks at what time? . . . Not really! . . . Please! Not my forehead.

It must be under this one. . . . Yeuck! . . . The class of '70. . . . Whee! . . . Christmas elves. . . .
 "I think that I shall never see". . . . Hark! a lark! . . . Why is it always me? . . . Aren't we great? . . .
